

PUTTING YOU FIRST

WE NEED YOUR DRIVE FOR IMPROVEMENT

These influential roles in our Performance & Business Improvement Team, supporting the Chief Executive, Cabinet and Corporate Management Team, offer the chance to work right at the heart of the Council's decision-making process. You'll be dealing with officers and elected members at the most senior levels, contributing to strategies and policies that will change the way we work and deliver performance improvements right across the Council – to the ultimate benefit of all our residents.

Performance and Business Improvement Officer

£36,684 - £39,234

Ref: 3564

You'll drive performance and improvement programmes affecting everything from data quality to value for money. Strong powers of persuasion, experience of performance and efficiency activities in a comparable organisation and the ability to advise and liaise at the highest levels will be vital.

Procurement Manager

£45,198 - £46,104

Ref: 3565

We need a confident, enthusiastic procurement professional to embed effective procurement systems, advise departmental managers and promote best practice. Procurement experience in a large organisation will be supported by a CIPS (Professional stage or Level 6 qualified) or MCIPS qualification.

Closing date for both jobs: Wednesday 14th May 2008.

For an informal discussion about either of these posts contact Suzanne Barrows, Performance and Business Improvement Manager, 020 8545 3662.

We encourage applications irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion & faith, sexual orientation and gender re-assignment. We are particularly keen to receive applications from the Asian community and from people with a disability, who are currently under-represented at all levels within the authority.
