Procurement has always been about achieving value for money. As an experienced procurement specialist, you know that, but perhaps no-one can fully know the extent of the financial challenges we face in the coming years.

Here at Hampshire we are building our team to focus on driving efficiency through a category management approach. As the second largest County Council in the country, we have immense buying power and one of the best reputations in the business.

As a part of our corporate procurement team, you will have the chance to challenge current practice and deliver innovative approaches in order to achieve further efficiency savings and improved service outcomes.

You will be able to demonstrate commercial expertise, creativity and experience of driving out cost reductions in a large and complex organisation.

For an informal discussion, please contact Shaun Le Picq, Procurement Development Manager, 01962 826967 or Neil Jones, Assistant Director, 01962 846180.
